

PROGRAMME

Groups at risk: Citizenship and Civic Participation

Summer school

5-16 July 2010

Reader

Homework assignment: experimental learning and professionalism

Which moments or situations in practice were important for your knowledge development as a professional?

The lectures/meetings during each morning are based on the following format: lecture, workgroup or workshops and a synthesis. Guest lecturers or international speakers are integrated in the morning programme. This will be supplemented in the afternoon either with a training related to the morning topic, a field visit or time to work on the assignment.
