Colleagues and Friends

The European Conference for Social Work Research will hold its inaugural event in Oxford, England, on March 23-25th 2011. Held in association with the NIHR School for Social Care Research, the theme of the occasion is:

‘Social Work and Social Care Research: Innovation, Interdisciplinarity and Impact’

The Call for Papers is now open.

Full information about the development of the conference, keynote speakers, submission of abstracts, how to register for the event, an outline programme, and other details can be found by going to the conference website at <http://www.ecswr.org/>

While this message has been distributed widely, we would welcome suggestions and offers for the dissemination of this initiative across Europe and more widely. Information about the management of the conference and of how to contact the conference with questions can be found on the Contact Us page of the site.

Although extensive work has gone into the conference so far, we anticipate there will be queries and possibly gaps in what we have provided. The Planning Committee appreciates any thoughts you have for the further development of this exciting and important initiative.
