

Dear colleagues,

in the name of the EASSW I cordially invite you to attend the Madrid conference in 2019 and to join to the large group of European social work educators, students, practitioners and service users in interactive discussion, dialogue and exchange of ideas and thoughts. After Paris conference that was held with great success in 2017 the EASSW along with its partner Faculty of Social Work Complutense University from Spain is strongly determined to raise the level of conference quality even higher and to offer to the participants unique opportunity for the presentation of their research findings, theoretical and practical insights and experiences as well as to exchange common ideas and attitudes. The beautiful city of Madrid will host us in prestigious Complutense University and organizers will conduct every efforts to make this conference perfectly organized, substantially significant but also to secure an homey warm ambience. The conference title “Meanings of Quality of Social work Education in a Changing Europe” offers broad space for the elaboration of the social work education issues as well as for discussion relations of the education with other social work aspects. I hope to see you in Madrid from 4 – 7. June 2019.

Nino Žganec

President of EASSW
