

The quality of the training offered by the FPCEUC has been confirmed by means of the accreditation of its courses by the Agency for Assessment and Accreditation of Higher Education (A3ES) and by the creation of a new Master's Degree in Social Work in 2014-2015.

The Master's Degree in Social Work enhances competencies in the domain of analysis and social management in order to contribute to the construction, implementation and assessment of new-target-audiences-oriented public policies, by means of innovation skills, expertise and professional proficiency. It ensures a professional and scientific profile based on critical thinking and the domain of research competencies and innovative social intervention, individually and collectively, in an organizational and community context.

Schedule: Fridays (14:00-19:00) and Saturdays (10:00-16:30).

Duration: 3 academic semesters, 90 ECTS

Professors: Helena Neves Almeida, Cristina Pinto Albuquerque, Clara Cruz Santos, Ana Cristina Vieira, Joana Guerra, Jacqueline Marques, Rosa da Primavera Castro. Every year are invited professors and researchers coming from national and international universities

Why study in Coimbra?

- The University of Coimbra is a prestigious university in national and international Teaching and Research.
- It is a university conducive to study, reflection, and the creation of stronger ties between students, personality developers and definers of a life path. From that point of view, Coimbra is the only truly University City in Portugal.

It is a University in which opportunities are conquered and built fitting the needs of each student.

Creditation: Under the Regulation no. 191/2014 from 15th May (Portuguese Official Gazette, 2nd series)

Syllabus:

- Theoretical Foundations and Critical Thinking in Social Work
- Public Policies and Social Transformation
- Thematic Seminar – Social Work: Debates, Challenges and Opportunities
- Advanced Issues of Social Research
- Theories of Social Justice and Intervention
- Social Work, Creativity and Innovation
- Theories, Models and Mediation Contexts
- Seminar of Research in Social Work
- Optional Curricular Unit (among the offer of the University of Coimbra)
- Internship, Intervention Project or Dissertation (choice of the student)

APPLICATIONS: <https://apps.uc.pt/courses/PT/course/5161>

COORDINATOR PROFESSOR: Phd. Helena Neves Almeida
helena.almeida@fpce.uc.pt