THE SOCIAL WORKER'S CLUB AT THE UNIVERSITY OF RUSE CELEBRATES THE WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY – 19TH MARCH 2019

On 19th March 2019 in the lounge of building 2 at the University of Ruse students and professors from the Social Worker's Club of Social Work professional field celebrated the World Social Work Day. In the beginning of the event the chairman of the Club associate professor Sasho Nunev, DSc of SW gave a speech in which he explained the importance of this day for both the professional and academic community of social workers in the whole world. He accentuated on the topic of this year's World Social Work Day. It draws the attention towards promoting the importance of human relationships in the everyday life, the work of social workers and the education of their future colleagues. Student teams from all years presented posters which had been drawn for the celebration and talked about the ideas imbued in them. These posters created a colourful interactive composition. After that in a flash mob, the students expressed their position that barriers in human relationships should be overcome and stated their active point of view on the significance and need for the development of human relationships. Through a video made by members of the club (students and professors) which was posted on the website of the European Association of Schools of Social Work (EASSW) (<https://www.eassw.org/happy-wswd-by-university-of-ruse/>) their colleagues from schools and organizations in Europe were greeted.

At the National Forum of the National Alliance for Social Responsibility on March 21, the University (through the Social Worker's Club) received a diploma for active participation in the National Information Campaign dedicated to the World Social Work Day (<https://socialaffairsru.weebly.com/105310861074108010851080/2625005>).
